You could try antiword (<http://www.winfield.demon.nl/linux/>).
It's consoled based and converts word 6+ docs to text and some images to postscript and png. You could also try openoffice and/or abiword if you have x installed.

Great! ;)

What about asking Toni Bush to host?

To: Kaplan, Jordan

She maxed out to us earlier this year total unprompted and came in for a check drop with DWS. I know it gets close to the Vernon Jordan/VJ world so wanted to run it past you before I reached out.

Let me know what you think. Thanks!

I just had to jump in here as Carbonara is one of my favourites to make and ask what the hell are you supposed to use instead of cream? I've never seen a recipe that hasn't used this. Personally I use low fat creme fraiche because it works quite nicely but the only time I've seen an supposedly authentic recipe for carbonara it was identical to mine (cream, eggs and lots of fresh parmesan) except for the creme fraiche.

Ask I'd make, make six figure gifts themselves to DNC and invite handful of core contacts.

Other nutty is Bainum with similar ask. Although probably wouldn't do six figure checks themselves but better raisers than Goldbergs.

And both just over DC/MD line which may be a deal breaker.

I wouldn't give to Goldbergs unless they committed to big family money, 100%.
